PYTHIANS BEGIN GRAND LODGE IN WACO; 2000 HERE

STATE CONVENTION DRAWS LODGEMEN TO CITY FROM EVERY POINT IN TEXAS.

SUPREME OFFICER HERE

JOHN J. BROWN OF VANDALIA, ILLS., SUPREME CHANCELLOR, TO PARTICIPATE.

Patriotic in every detail, in keeping with the spirit of the day, the Knights of Pythias opened their convention in Waco yesterday at 10 o'clock with a meeting of the state association of keepers of the records and seal. A conservative estimate places the number of guests at over 2,000.

The principal event of the first day was the open meeting held in the convention hall of the Raleigh at 8:30 o'clock in the evening. Supreme chancellor of the order, John J. Brown, of Vandalia, Ill., delivered the principal address of the evening, speeches also being heard from supreme chief of the Pythian Sisters, Mrs. Lillie Samuels; Pat M. Neff, grand prelate; H. P. Brown of Cleburne, past supreme chancellor, and several others.

The importance of living up to the precept of the order and the benefits to be gained by living in a patriotic way were stressed in Supreme Chancellor Brown's address of the evening. Although a republican and having held high offices under the administration at various times, Mr. Brown says that we should now know no party differences but should work as one and stand united with the greatest man of the nation, Woodrow Wilson. Supreme Chancellor Brown was among the first men at the head of American organizations to offer the services of his association to the country. Over 800,000 Pythians are ready to serve their country at any time, he declared.

Hold Business Session.

A business session was held yesterday afternoon at which a number of round table discussions of the various problems that will very likely be worked out at the present meeting took place. The degree work was given yesterday, following a long established custom, in order that the men might have an abundance of time for the work that will come today.

Grand Master of the Exchequer W. F. Skillmore of Dallas entertained a number of the grand lodge officers at dinner last evening at 6:30 o'clock. Toasts and short addresses of an informal nature were made during the dinner. The following guests were present:

Supreme chancellor, John J. Brown; past supreme chancellor, H. P. Brown; supreme representatives, John F. Olson, R. H. Buck, George F. Griggs; grand lodge officers, G. C. U. S. Gorn; G. V. C. George G. Shaw; G. P. Pat M. Neff;

By Associated Press. ## HOW IS BUSINESS? ANSWER No. 2

By W. W. Seley
President of the Waco State Bank and Proprietor of the New State House.

THIS is no time for either the business man or the average citizen to become frightened as to business conditions. It is true that the country is at war, and the government will make unusual demands upon every individual and every industry, but there is no call that is beyond the resources of the country and its citizenship. The South is a producing section. Every product will be in demand, and the price that will be paid for every article will justify the extra efforts that will be required to increase the output in order to supply the demands. The living cost is higher, but the opportunities for work will be greater, there will be no stagnant market for any necessity which we will produce here, and the producer will profit. Business in Texas ought to be better than even a year ago, and I see no reason for any character of commercial enterprise to be discouraged. With so many men being called to the colors, there will be just as many consumers, and fewer producers, so that those who double their efforts at adding to the marketable wealth of the country will realize a profitable return on every endeavor. Added to this is further fact that more than ever before are the people of the south endeavoring to "live at home," so that we will pay out less for that which is shipped in, and receive more for what we ship out.

The general idea of most people is that war devastates a country. That is true where there are battlefields, but there is no possibility that any part of the war is to be fought on our soil. Therefore we have no fear of losing our crops or our homes. No enemy army will overrun us, and the Federal government will wisely leave at their several tasks those who are the producers. I take a very optimistic view of the situation, and believe that it is the view that every business man ought to take and that he should say it to those with whom he comes in contact.

ARMY ABROAD TO BE COMPOSED OF RAILROAD MEN

NINE NEW REGIMENTS OF ARMY ENGINEERS WILL COMPRISE U. S. CONTINGENT.

TOTAL STRENGTH 12,000 RECRUITING TO START AT NINE GREAT RAILWAY CENTERS IN AMERICA.

By Associated Press. Washington, May 7.—Nine new regiments of army engineers to be composed exclusively of highly trained railway men will be the first American troops to be sent to France, going "at the earliest possible moment," the war department announced today, for work on communication lines.

The new forces will be volunteers, raised at the nine great railway centers of the country, New York, Chicago, St. Louis, Boston, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Atlanta, San Francisco and Philadelphia.

Each regiment will be commanded by an engineer colonel of the regular army, aided by an adjutant. All other officers will be railway engineers or officials.

The expedition will have a total strength of between 11,000 and 12,000 men. Every branch of railway work necessary to the building or operation of lines will be represented in the ranks. Official believe the great railroad brotherhoods will co-operate, throwing the strength of the unions behind the recruiting efforts.

GOMPERS CABLES RUSSIA WORKMEN

SENDS PLEA AGAINST PREMATURE PEACE—ALSO GREETINGS OF U. S. LABOR.

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 7.—A plea against a premature peace for Russia and renewed assurances that American wage earners are in hearty sympathy with the Russian democratic move, are included in a long cablegram sent by President Samuel Gompers of the American Federation of Labor to the executive committee of the Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' deputies at Petrograd.

Speaking for organized labor in this country, Mr. Gompers also expresses complete confidence in the purposes and opinions of the American mission soon to go to Russia. Although he does not mention specifically the recent attacks on Elihu Root, who will head the mission, the labor leader denounces as criminal and pro-German any suggestion that the members will seek to interfere in Russia's internal affairs or will give any advice except with the purpose of combatting the common enemy.

U. S. NAVY CO-OPERATION BEING PLANNED IN LONDON

By Associated Press. Washington, May 7.—Naval co-operation between the United States and the allies against Germany is being negotiated largely in London, it was learned today, instead of at Washington, as is the case with military and other subjects.

FRENCH MISSION ESCAPES INJURY AT ANCOLA, ILLS.

SECRET SERVICE HEAD BELIEVES DERAILMENT IS ENTIRELY ACCIDENTAL.

ENVOYS EATING DINNER

"PAPA" JOFFRE DOES NOT LEAVE COACH, BUT VIVIANI VIEWS WRECKAGE.

By Associated Press. Terre Haute, Ind., May 7.—The special train bearing the French commission was derailed near Ancola, Ill., early this evening. Four of the six coaches left the rails but did not upset. No one was hurt so far as is known. A wrecking train left here at 8:30 o'clock for the scene. The train will be three or four hours behind schedule time.

Secret Service Busy.

William Nye, in charge of the United States secret service detail attached to the party, made a thorough investigation of conditions surrounding the wreck and announced as his opinion that it was entirely accidental. Rene Viviani, French minister of justice, the head of the mission; Marshal Joffre and other attaches of the party were dining at the time of the accident. Only the forward truck of the diner, however, left the rails and the jar was comparatively slight.

The train, composed of five solid steel cars drawn by two engines was running eastward at a fair speed, when suddenly the tender of the second engine apparently jumped the track and tore up the rails for a distance of about 200 feet. The day-coach following, which was used as a buffer car, was thrown from the tracks and turned on its side in a ditch. Three trainmen riding in the coach were uninjured.

Reporters Bumped.

The second car, which contained the newspaper men attached to the party and the staff of the mission, also jumped the track but remained upright and none of its occupants was injured. The dining car was next and the two other cars of the train were undisturbed.

Efforts to determine the cause of the wreck tonight were in vain. Railroad men asserted that John Redmond, engineer in charge, probably saved the train from more serious damage by quick action in throwing on the emergency brakes.

M. Viviani and Vice Admiral Chocheprat went forward and made an examination of the wreck, evincing great interest in the efforts of the trainmen to clear away the debris. Marshal Joffre and others of the commission remained aboard the train and completed their interrupted dinner.

Retire for Night.

The train was held here several hours, during which time the members of the commission retired for the night. It was expected that with wrecking trains from Terre Haute, Ind., at work the wreckage would be cleared away shortly.

Many members of the party were asleep, when, after about four hours' delay, the wreckage was cleared sufficiently to permit the train to get under way.

TRAIN KILLS MAN.

By Associated Press. Decatur, Ill., May 7.—Decatur's enthusiastic welcome of the French commission, which arrived here at 5:55 p. m., was followed by one of the first misfortunes of the trip when the train ran down and killed Peter Quick, a spectator, just as it was leaving the city, at the South Main street crossing.

In Tribute to Lincoln.

By Associated Press. Springfield, Ill., May 7.—Marshal Joffre, hero of the Marne, paid tribute to the memory of Lincoln at the emancipator's tomb here today and with the others of the French commission returned.

DRASTIC LIQUOR TAXES PLANNED IN REVENUE BILL

INHERITANCE TAXES WILL ALSO BE HIT HARD BY THE NEW BILL.

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 7.—In an extended session today the house ways and means committee wrote new and drastic liquor and inheritance taxes into the war revenue bill, but adjourned to night still in disagreement over the many sections and about $200,000,000 short of the $1,800,000,000 it has voted to raise. The leaders hope to complete the measure tomorrow and a proposed retroactive income tax amendment, which would yield $140,000,000 during the coming year, and other far-reaching proposals are held in abeyance to be inserted in the eleventh hour, if necessary, to make up the desired total.

Several members of the house, including at least one member of the ways and means committee, already are planning to carry their fight for the changes to the bill to the senate finance committee as soon as hearings on the senate side begin probably this week.

Proposed taxes on whiskey were increased from $1.10 to $2.20 a gallon and on beer from $1.50 to $2.75 a barrel. The amount of exempt liquor in a dealer's possession at the time the law becomes effective was reduced from an unlimited quantity to fifty gallons. These changes, it is predicted, will result in almost $50,000,000 additional revenue.

An Advertising Tax.

New taxes written into the bill today include five per cent on all advertising except newspapers and periodicals; five per cent on pipe line transportation charges; on proprietary medicines; a stamp tax expected to produce $5,000,000; ten per cent on the purchase price of Pullman car tickets; five per cent on sporting goods; five per cent on the factory price of new jewelry; ten cents a deck on playing cards; and in addition to other amusement taxes, a one-cent tax on every theatre ticket sold to a child under 12 years old.

The proposed tax on retail tobacco dealers was stricken out. Attempts to fix a tax on automobiles, motor boats and pleasure yachts already in the hands of users failed.

Efforts still are being made to kill the proposed increased rates for second-class mail matter. Opponents of the change today succeeded in adding a proviso "that the rate of postage on daily newspapers when same are dropped in a letter carrier office for delivery by its carriers shall be the same as now provided by law."

A vote on Representative Moore's proposal to tax cotton $2.50 a bale will not be reached until tomorrow. A proposal to tax gasoline will be voted on at the same time.

WACO MEN TO COLEMAN TO SIGN SPANELL'S BOND

SANTOL TOOTH POWDER OR PASTE

Keeps the Teeth White and Healthy

Drink Hot Water For Indigestion

COMMON SENSE ADVICE ON CARE OF THE STOMACH.

If dyspepsia, sufferers from gas, wind or flatulence, stomach acidity or sourness, gastric catarrh, heartburn, etc., would take a teaspoonful of pure bisulphated magnesia in half a glass of hot water, many would soon forget that they were ever afflicted with stomach trouble, and doctors would have to look elsewhere for patients.

Physicians tell us that most forms of stomach trouble are due to stomach acidity or fermentation of the food contents combined with catarrh of the stomach. A cup of hot water taken with a teaspoonful of bisulphated magnesia before meals will wash out mucus and tend to prevent food fermentation of the stomach. Taken an hour or two after eating they instantly reduce the excess acidity. In either condition, therefore, the treatment is eminently successful and decidedly preferable to the use of artificial digestants, stimulants or medicines used indiscriminately for indigestion.

Stomach sufferers can obtain Bisulphated Magnesia from druggists in either powder or tablet form and for treatment as outlined above the bisulphated form should be insisted on as it is especially prepared for correction of stomach acidity.—Advertisement.

ATTACK WILSON IN SECRET MEET

BOTH DEMOCRATS AND REPUBLICANS TAKE PART IN DISCUSSION YESTERDAY.

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 7.—President Wilson was attacked in the senate today for failure to take congress into his confidence on matters of legislation and particularly those questions that have come up in relation to the international situation in the last few months.

Both democrats and republicans joined in the discussion. It was held behind closed doors and senators after it had progressed for some time were reminded that they are pledged to secrecy.

Indignation arose over the announcement by Majority Leader Martin that the president was extremely anxious that the senate reconsider its action of last week in modifying a provision of the administration espionage bill relating to embargoes on exports. Senators Lodge, Fall, Reed and others declared that the senate would never have been put in the position of having to reconsider its action if the president had called in leaders before the bill was sent to the capitol and explained the need for this legislation.

Criticism was directed also to the fact that no members of the senate or house were invited to participate in the visiting British and French missions and the attitude of members of the president's cabinet toward the legislators came in for some vigorous condemnation.

U. S. MAIL WILL ADVERTISE LOAN PLAN OF M'ADOO

NATIONWIDE PUBLICITY CAMPAIGN ADOPTED BY UNIQUE SYSTEMATIZATION.

By Associated Press.

Washington, May 7.—The unfathomable possibilities of the United States mails as a medium of governmental publicity are to be developed at once to bring home to every person in the country the need of subscribing to the liberty loan.

Every letter of the millions that pass daily through the mails is soon to bear a special cancellation stamp of striking design to notify all persons receiving mail that the nation is calling for contributions to the big bond issue. Every letter box of the hundreds of thousands in the country is to be placarded with posters announcing the loan and the need for contributions. Every postoffice is to display posters prominently giving full information.

Wagons Carry Posters.

Every one of the 60,000 vehicles operated by the postoffice department from the one-horse buggy of the rural free delivery carrier to the powerful mail trucks in the principal cities, is to proclaim in large type from posters on its sides that the liberty loan is open to subscriptions and that it is the duty of every citizen who can to subscribe. Every letter carrier in every city is to have a card to stick in his cap, so that wherever his whistle is heard the call to subscribe will be carried.

More than that, every letter carrier and every free delivery carrier is to be an active bureau of information as to the terms and details of the issue. The carriers will be coached in the elemental details and will be supplied abundantly with advertising literature which they are to distribute upon request to all persons desiring it.

Adopt Plan Yesterday.

This part of the nationwide advertising campaign was decided on today at a conference between Robert Woolsey, publicity director for the issue and James Blakeslee, fourth assistant postmaster general. Other features probably will be added later. In the meantime, other methods of bringing every citizen of the country to a realization of the nation's needs and his opportunity to help are under consideration.

Among these are the uses to which electrical advertising signs can be placed. The largest electrical sign ever built will be placed at Broadway and Forty-second street, New York, reputed to be the busiest spot in America, to flash in red, white and blue every night an appeal for subscriptions to the loan. This sign will be built and maintained free of cost to the government by O. J. Gude of New York. Other signs may be similarly operated in other large cities.

McAdoo Plans Tour.

In addition, Secretary McAdoo has under consideration a speech-making tour in the interest of the big issue. Mr. McAdoo has received numerous invitations to speak in the middle west, and while he has reached no decision regarding them, it is believed, he will make a short tour if he can spare the time.

Responses to the offer of the big issue have been extremely gratifying thus far, Mr. McAdoo said tonight. Today's part tabulation of replies received from banks and bankers showed no diminution in the rate at which subscriptions are pouring in. Thirty-five of the chief cities of the country offered today to take $104,846,000 worth of the bonds in addition to previous offers, bringing the total up to $325,576,000 for the three days on which subscriptions have been received.

Many Estimates Arrive.

In many instances, however, the offers were in the nature of estimates as to what could be taken, rather than outright offerings to subscribe. Telegrams reaching the treasury department today, giving estimates of subscriptions were so overwhelming in their volume that the clerks handling them were unable to compile any totals except those of the larger cities. The work was complicated by flood of letters, many of which were merely confirmatory of telegrams previously received.

A former United States senator offered to subscribe to $3,000,000 worth of the bonds and numerous offers were received from individuals offering to take from $5000 to $100,000. Senator Williams of Mississippi sent his check for $14,000 as a subscription for that amount.

NEW ORPHEUM BILL EXCELLENT.

"Rough Rosetta," a dainty little miss not yet in her teens, is captivating every audience at the Orpheum this week with her delightful voice and her winsome affections. The act is billed as "Rutan's Song Birds," and she is supported by a young fellow still in knickerbockers and two older men, all of whom are accomplished singers. In presenting this act the management is giving Waco theatre fans a big-time production an everyone who sees little Miss Rosetta will carry away a pleasant conception of vaudeville's cleverest little singer.

The diminutive prima donna's wardrobe is the equal of many of her older rivals, and the coat with 200 ermine tails that she wears when singing "Indiana" is surpassed by none. In this song she reaches and holds notes in a perfect lyric tone that even a metropolitan singer might stumble over.

Other acts on the new bill are: Clifford and Clayton, furniture tusslers, who do many novel things, such as balancing heavy articles of furniture on their heads in a truly wonderful manner. Godfrey and Henderson present a little sketch that is favorably received, entitled, "In Catskill, N. Y." This act has to do with the opening of a new hotel and the arrival of the guests several days in advance of the opening. How they conduct themselves makes an interesting little dialogue.

West and Fulton, in the "Rube Girl and the Drummer," present a peppy sketch that keeps the crowd in a good humor and draws a good round of applause at the finish. A splendid picture, featuring William Courtney, completes one of the best bills this season.

"A WOMAN'S AWAKENING" AT HIPPODROME.

The costumes and settings for the new Triangle picture, "A Woman's Awakening," showing at the Hippodrome theatre today only, are especially worthy of mention. Seena Owen, the beautiful star who has just returned to the screen, wears twelve evening gowns in the picture, aside from numerous street, house and sport costumes. Alma Reubens in the support closely rivals the star in this respect and in the supporting cast are many beautifully gowned young girls led by Winifred Westover. One of the most pretentious scenes shows a stock market, another a ball room scene in which are over 200 people, and still another an outdoor social affair at the fashionable Mission Inn at Riverside, California, where the wives and daughters of millionaires were used as "extras." A spacious hall, reception room and library is the set that is the most pretentious, the hall having been furnished throughout in Chippendale.

Sure! High Heels Cause Corns But Who Cares Now

Because style decrees that women crowd and buckle up their tender toes in high heel footwear they suffer from corns, then they cut and trim at these painful pests which merely makes the corn grow hard. This suicidal habit may cause lockjaw and women are warned to stop it.

A few drops of a drug called freeze-one applied directly upon the sore corn gives quick relief and soon the entire corn, root and all, lifts out without pain. Ask the drug store man for a quarter of an ounce of freeze-one, which costs very little but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet.

This drug is an ether compound and dries in a moment and simply shrivels up the corn without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. Clip this out and pin on your wife's dresser.

SUFFERED SEVERELY EVERY MONTH

Lady Tells What Cardui Did for Her and What It Will Do for Suffering Women.

Deepwater, Texas.—"I think Cardui is indeed a wonderful medicine," says Mrs. Minnie Starnes of this town. "In 1905, I broke down in health suddenly. . . I suffered agony. Had bearing-down pains . . . also my back and limbs and hips. . . Sometimes I was in bed all the time and again I was just able to be up. I suffered most severely at . . . and would be confined to my bed four or five days.

"Nothing I did ever did me any good until I took Cardui. But I suffered two years this way before I took Cardui. One day my husband . . . saw the Cardui advertisement. He got me a bottle. I began taking it and next month I never felt any pain at all, did all my work without any trouble."

Mrs. Starnes says she did not take any more Cardui then until 1908, when she took four bottles, with excellent results. She concludes her statement with the following: "I would advise all expectant mothers to give Cardui a trial. It will relieve all anxiety and fear as is natural for them to have. I know, for I had the experience myself."

Judging from the experiences of so many thousands of other women, you can depend on Cardui to surely help you. If you suffer from any of the complaints so common to women. Get a bottle from your druggist today, and give it a fair trial.

Combing Won't Rid Hair of Dandruff

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the fingertips.

Do this tonight, and by morning most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

aiding christianity, too.

THE Baptist Pastors' association of the county has requested all Baptist ministers in McLennan county to preach on food production and conservation, next Sunday. Around this theme they will weave the Gospel message, and it will be one of patriotism and Scriptural inspiration.

The subject is one allied closely with the national life and ideals of America in this crisis. As this country fosters the Christian religion and liberty of religious life, the ministers will do a decidedly religious act in spreading the Gospel of preparation and conservation. They will aid the fight for Christian ideals as opposed to Prussian materialism and militarism.

a tie stronger than treaties.

IT is not conceivable that in the various conferences at Washington between the American, British and French officials, differences will develop serious enough to prevent a hard and fast alliance not only for the prosecution of the war against Germany but also for its continuation until permanent world peace has been achieved.

The United States was forced into the great conflict because the freedom of the world was menaced by Germany.

For more than two years we patiently endured German attacks on our people and our property because we did not fully appreciate that they were merely symptomatic of Germany's determination to strike at the very vitals of the democratic principle.

When Germany finally openly declared war on humanity two courses were open to us.

We had to fight or submit.

The question was not merely one of honor or dishonor.

The future of the whole world was involved in our decision.

If we submitted and stood aside, the chances were better than even that Germany would win. And a German victory would mean the control of the seas and the domination of the world by the Hohenzollern autocracy.

Such a victory would be a blow to democracy from which it could not recover for generations if ever.

If we accepted the challenge and drew the saber in defense of the world's freedom, we should have known if we did not that we must make common cause with the nations which had been forced to accept the challenge two and a half years ago.

It was inevitable and necessary that we fight Germany; it is inevitable and necessary that we fight her in alliance that we fight her in alliance with the other great democratic nations; it is inevitable and necessary that when peace finally comes it is a peace that is mutually satisfactory to all of the allied nations.

It is unthinkable that we should ever consider a separate peace with Germany.

It is unthinkable that Great Britain and France should ever consider a peace with Germany without us.

Whether or not the arrangements and understandings that result from the momentous Washington conferences are sealed by treaties is relatively unimportant.

It is probably just as well that they should not be.

Stronger ties than treaties will bind the three nations together—ties of blood, of honor and of self interest.

When the kaiser sings, "I ain't never done nothin' to nobody," nobody believes him.

There's a pacifist paper in Oberlin. Somebody ought to chisel the "O" off the date line.

The Religion of Men of Letters

BY DR. FRANK CRANE

OF all aristocracies of earth, that which seems to me to be the finest is the aristocracy of men of letters. In our inmost hearts we all believe in an upper class, in the elect, in the existence of a kind of people who are our betters. Our very protest against the tawdriness and fustian of the so-called superior folk is proof that there is some real gentility they counterfeit.

I am not much impressed by a fellow who knows kings and has hobnobbed with celebrities, and his advertisement of his grand acquaintance irritates me, but I confess to a feeling of awe in the presence of a man who shows his familiarity with the emperors of literature, reveals a familiarity with Montaigne and Sir Thomas Browne, has evidently passed many an evening with Goethe and Dante, and remembers odd conceits of Charles Lamb and felicities of Walter Pater.

What did these high priests of letters believe? Had they a religion, and what was the temper of it?

The common denominator of their faith may be expressed as a certain high feeling, a deep and invariable reverence for the eternal humanities. When they dropped into a statement of their creeds they were as commonplace as peasants and as fanciful as theologians. But there is in their writings, whether in the novels of Dickens, the essays of Carlyle, or the poetry of Blake or Wordsworth, a profound understanding of trust in and respect for certain spiritual elements.

First of all they worshipped truth, and the whole realm of literature is one way or another a campaign against fraud and pretensions humbug. The jokes of Mark Twain, the epigrams of Schiller, the ribaldry of Rabelais, the pathos of Victor Hugo, the rambling narratives of Plutarch, what are they all but tributes from many angles and in varied forms to the beauty and utter desirableness of truth?

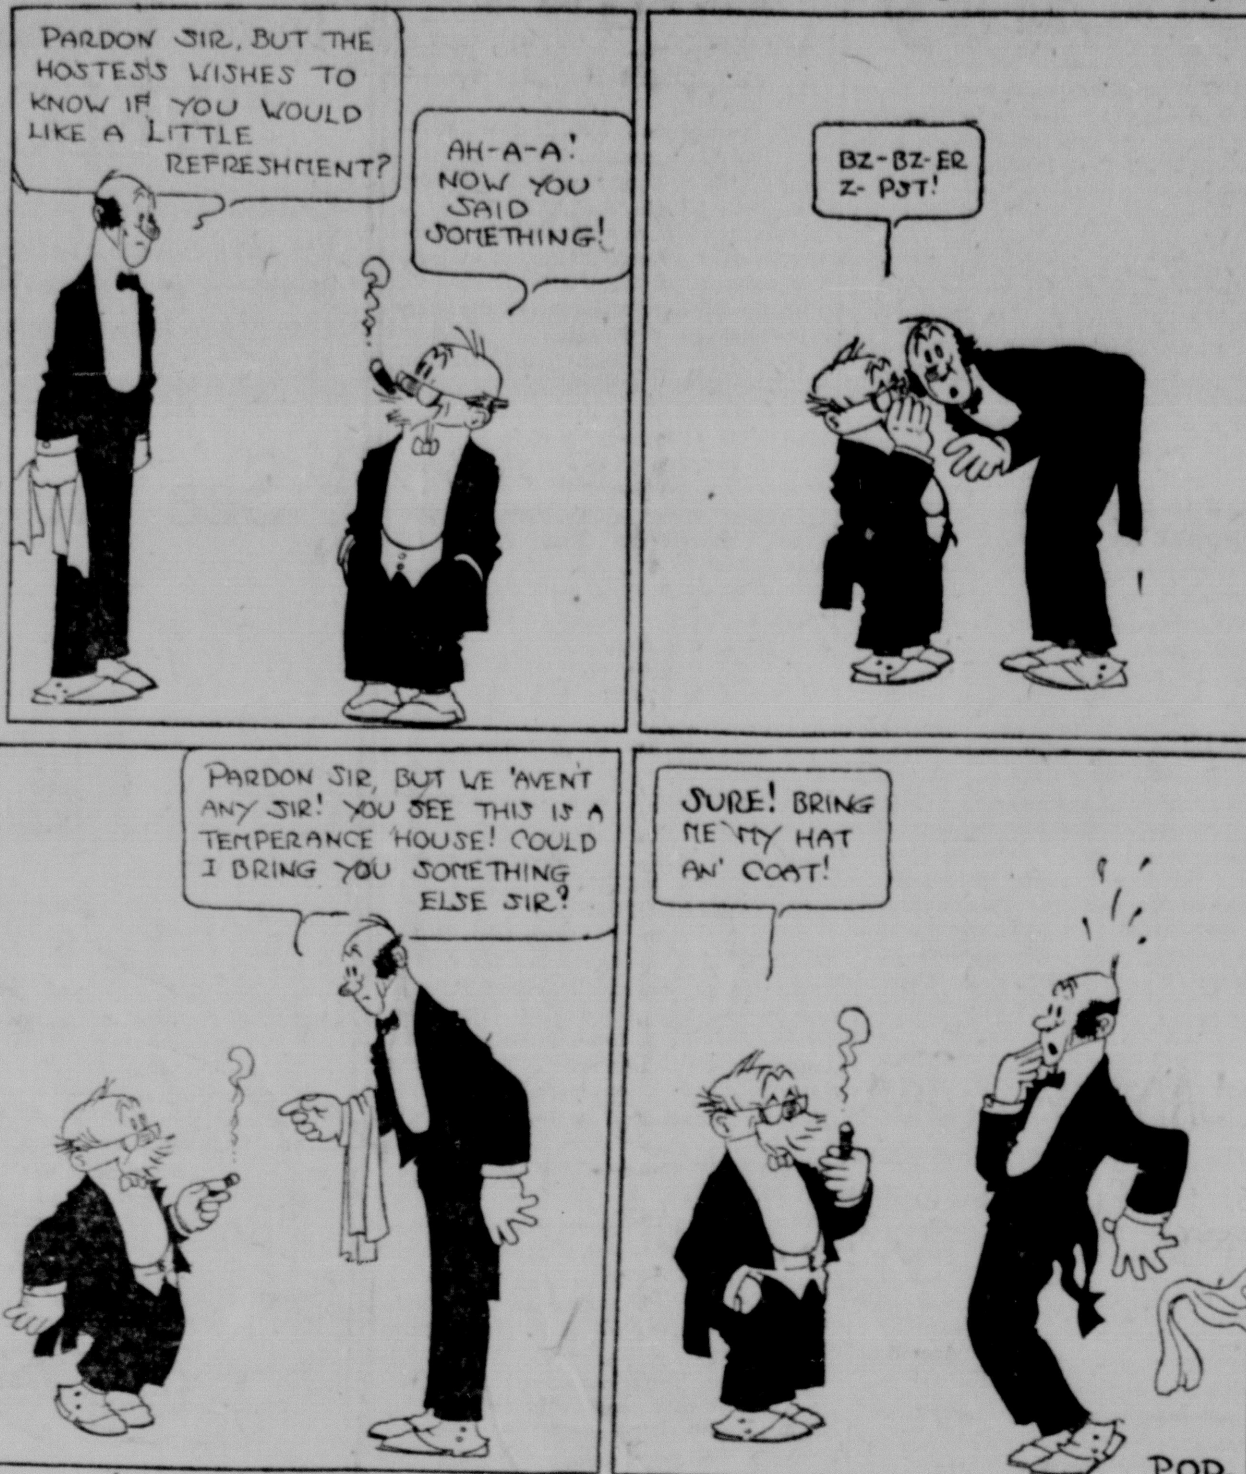

Secondly, they believe in pity, in that sentiment that binds the weak upon the strong and incumbers all power with responsibility. Their tales of horror or of melancholy, their pictures of heroes and victims, of the vicious and the gentle, what is their manifest motive but to move us to bear the burdens of the unfit? The common God of Homer, of Cervantes, of Thackeray, of Ibsen, of Anatole France, and of all others who have the eternal quality in their work, is such an one as Maeterlinck implies when he makes old Arkel say, in "Pelleas and Melisande," "Si j'étais Dieu j'aurais pitié des hommes." "If I were God I would have pity upon men."

And the third quality of the religion of men of letters is courage. They seem to see the race of men as travelers from an unknown to an unknown country, played upon by strange forces, ruled by inscrutable fates, yet finding their joy not in slavish fear but in a brave dominance; for the tragedies that crush the petty do but liberate and ennoble the great.

And surely any soul, of whatever creed or of whatever unfaith, can but be enlarged and satisfied by joining in the appreciation of truth, of pity, and of courage, the religion of men of letters.

WAR NEARS CRITICAL STAGE; AMERICA MUST ACT AT ONCE

HIGHEST AUTHORITIES BELIEVE RUSSIA MAY GO OUT AND ROMANIA WITH HER—FRANCE CANNOT HOLD OUT MORE THAN A YEAR—U-BOAT CAMPAIGN PINCHES BRITAIN.

By Herbert Corey.

Special to The News.
 Washington, May 7.—Suppose we look our war square in the face.

What follows is intended as a presentation of the blackest elements in the situation. It is all gloom. The sun still shines, but it isn't shining here.

Some members of the general staff feel that these things should be known. The members of the French and British commissions have assuredly not tried to temper the unpleasant wind to the shorn lamb of American optimism.

What is the worst of the situation today?
 Russia may go out. Rumania will go with her. If the suggested separate peace is signed with Austria by Russia it means that Germany will be provisioned by Russia through the Austrian door.

The peasant private is gaining control of the Russian army. Already hundreds of officers have been forced out and hundreds of others have resigned. The Russian peasant is of sound material, but it is to be doubted if there is much officer material in the ranks.

The peasant's eyes are turned on internal questions. He demands a distribution of land. He has been assured that the land will not be distributed until he comes home. If he can vote himself home it is probable that he will do so. In that way the land distribution will be hastened.

There is at least no indication that the Russian army will become an efficient factor soon. If the present government does not evolve stability out of turmoil THERE IS A CHANCE OF CIVIL WAR. The monarchical, pro-German, land-holding, reactionary classes may find strength in the desire of all Russia for internal peace.

I AM TOLD THE MACEDONIAN CAMPAIGN MAY BE ABANDONED. It is military useless and economically impossible. Its abandonment points to a centering of the allied strength in the west. That might coax King Constantine of Greece into taking the German side. He has always believed the kaiser would win.

There is no information at hand justifying the fondly held American opinion that Germany may starve out, that strikes may cripple her munition production, or that revolution will overturn the government.

To meet the allied strength in the west von Hindenburg will undoubtedly retire to the Rhine line of fortresses. The Germans have always believed that they can hold this line until Satan begins to burn ice in perdition's furnaces.

As long as she can hold on her U-boat campaign promises to be increasingly formidable. The allies and neutrals have been censured and cheered about the U-boats until lately. Now Admiral Beresford in London and Lord Eustace Percy in Washington are being frank. So are others. The Scientific American says Germany can build 1,000 U-boats a year. At the present rate vessel destruction exceeds that of vessel construction. A mathematical formula is created that he may work out who will.

If the U-boats starve Italy for coal Italy may be forced out. Not out, perhaps, but at least to greatly decrease her efforts. France will never quit. But she cannot maintain the present rate of man-expenditure for more than a year. The members of the French commission in Washington say she ought not to be asked to keep it up for more than six months.

"THE CRISIS," THEY HAVE SAID, "WILL COME IN SIX MONTHS." IF GERMANY HOLDS HER RHINE LINE AND THE CENTRAL EUROPE SHE HAS GAINED, SHE HAS WON THE WAR.

She can be defeated by American troops added to the allied troops now on the western front.

The time has come when we should look at the black side only. Only in that way can we visualize what we may have to face. Reliance on luck and the other fellow's efforts and belief in sunshiny stories make war into a gamble.

There is nothing speculative about war. It is a business. Other elements being equal, in the long run the best business man will win.

Americans have always believed they are business men.

Pointed Paragraphs.

If you cannot take a joke you should make a special effort to become a human being.

Pies are just as good today as were those made when we were children. The change is in the eaters.

Attending to one's own business gives one a good steady job. How lucky some men would be if they should lose their reputations!

It isn't always safe to keep knocking merely because the victim does not strike back.

You won't have to wait long if you are looking for a chance to have your feelings hurt.

Good resolutions are formed most easily just before one gets up on the morning after the night before.

A man is hopelessly ill when he fails to make a fuss about any new experiment that is tried on him.

Possibly the man who grows about the washday dinner would find it more pleasing to his taste if he had done the washing.

Cynics should avoid human society and go out where the dogs are barking at the moon.

Hot weather philosophy is always effective except in hot weather.

Girls who can't cook should look before they leap into the matrimonial frying pan.

Some people derive a lot of satisfaction from making themselves miserable.

Young men who go courting should bear in mind that the prettiest flowers are not necessarily the most fragrant.

Farmer Brown's Boy's Plans

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS

Farmer Brown's boy kept right on talking to his unseen listeners in the Old Orchard quite as if they could understand all he said. Of course they couldn't. They couldn't understand a word. They could, however, understand that the tone of his voice was friendly and that he was saying something nice.

"Yes, sir," said Farmer Brown's boy, "I've planted these bushes and vines along the old stone wall just for you folks. They will not only give you a lot of food of the kind you like, but they will give you the very best kind of hiding places, especially those of you who like to be near the ground and to build your nests in bushes instead of trees. Just you wait until they have grown and then you will understand. And I'm going to do more than this. Yes, sir, I'm going to do more than this. I'm going to plant some trees in here in the Old Orchard especially for you. What do you think of that? I'm going to plant some sweet cherry trees and some Russian mulberry trees. Of course I shall want some of those cherries, but half of them will be for you. That is why I am going to plant them.

"You see, it is this way," he continued. "I know a lot of you like fruit, but there are only apples and pears in the Old Orchard now and you don't eat those. But you do save them from the bugs and the worms for me, and so it seems to me that it is only fair that there should be some fruit that you do like. You are going to like those Russian mulberries. Yes, sir, you are going to like them so well that "He had a lot to say, and I wonder what it was all about," said Welcome Robin.

"I don't know, but I'm sure it was something nice," declared Sammy Jay, cocking his head on one side shrewdly.

Jenny Wren had been busy inspecting those newly set bushes. She now came bustling up in her usual fussy way. "I don't know what he said and I don't care," she said. "But I do know that those are sure enough bushes he has set out there and that's enough for me. We need some bushes around the Old Orchard. Trees are all right as far as they go, but bushes are needed, too. I don't know what Farmer Brown's boy set them out for, but in doing it he's done us a good turn. The Old Orchard is going to be a better place to live in than ever before. I've got several friends who think there is no place like a bush in which to build a nest and I wouldn't wonder a bit that they will come here to live another year."

"I hope they are the right sort and will be the kind of neighbors we can associate with," said Scrapper the Kingbird, with a sly wink at Sammy Jay.

Jenny Wren flew into a passion right away. You know, she is very fussy and rather quick tempered.

"If they are friends of mine they certainly are good enough for you!" she sputtered. "The idea! The very idea of even hinting that my friends might not be fit for you to associate with!" And then Jenny Wren's tongue fairly flew as she told Scrapper what she thought of him, while all the other birds chuckled as they listened.

HETTY PREPARES FOR WACO TRIP TO SEEK WORK

TELLS OF PREPARING TO MEET FORTUNES IN THIS CITY FOLLOWING MOTHER'S DEATH.

SYNOPSIS.

(Hetty Anderson, a girl living in Rogers, Texas, loses her mother, her only near relative, through death. After the funeral, Hetty begins to plan a new life and comes to Waco to find work.)

CHAPTER III.

Hetty's Eyes Turn Toward Waco.

I looked around the familiar room, at the dresser that I had insisted on having painted white; at the iron bed with its sagging mattress and crocheted counterpane; at the mantel, cluttered with odds and ends now that the mother was not there to straighten up things. The little table with its hand-embroidered scarf held the family Bible, just as it had held it ever since I was a little tad with a propensity for pulling covers off tables.

Sticking out of the old Bible was the burial insurance policy that mother had been so careful of keeping up. I remembered thinking that the insurance money was just so many nickels thrown away when we needed nickels so badly, but now it represented clearing of the funeral debt and perhaps fifty dollars with which to undertake my "great adventure."

For I knew that I was going to pull up stakes. There was nothing to hold me to this place, with its thousand inhabitants and no chance for advancement. I longed for paved streets and electric lights before the theatres as thousands of other girls who live in small country towns do.

I looked out the open door of the little rented house which I had called home. The noisy children next door had been released from the funeral quiet imposed by their parents. The road was bright with hot, white dust. The straggling line of weeds on either side was threaded occasionally by fat, lazy hens, scratching half-heartedly. A Ford full of laughing boys and girls flashed by. A dowdy, middle-aged woman with the air of having never lived a day in her life but of being doggedly determined to exist for another thirty years, held an umbrella impartially over herself and the pudgy, red-faced man, who spat regularly against my white picket fence as they walked along, going over the details of the funeral with morbid delight.

I could hear them saying in their monotonous, flat, uneducated voices: "Pretty good crowd, eh? Hetty done real well by her mother, and the neighbors was real good about sending flowers."

I managed to rise out of my lethargy as the afternoon wore on, to straighten my neglected hair, and to rinse the tears off my face, which looked unfamiliarly plain and careworn. I choked down a few bites of the home-made bread and fried corn that the old lady had left out for me.

"Don't wear mourning for me, Hetty," had been mother's last request. Out of respect for the town's feelings, I had borrowed Mrs. Green's black dress that had gone the rounds of several funerals.

Now I slipped out of it, and into a pretty white dress that mother had made for me at the beginning of the summer. I recalled how she had labored over the fit of it; how painstakingly she had tucked and whipped on lace. But the pretty dress made me feel better, and I dragged my chair out on the porch in the twilight. I sat there for some time brooding with the real sorrow in my heart eclipsed by the greatness of my problem. I took stock of myself seriously.

"You're twenty-two years old, Hetty Anderson, and you have never been out side Texas in your life. You have never been in a bigger town than Temple. You're mostly just plain rube. Your clothes would look funny in Waco, and you're not pretty enough not to need pretty, stylish clothes. You have good teeth, and you've kept them nice and white, thanks to your mother. You have good hair and it's long and wavy and brown, for which the Lord be thanked. You have big brown eyes which have gotten you a few compliments from the village youths."

Outside that and your good complexion you haven't much to brag about. Your education is sadly in need of repairs, and it wasn't strong to begin on. You can spell and you can punctuate fairly well. Your shorthand could be better and you haven't had enough practice on the typewriter to give you speed. I have my doubts about you, Hetty Anderson, but with the backbone which your mother gave you and the pressure of circumstances you may get by."

NEW YORK COTTON.
New York, May 7.—The cotton market showed a generally easier tendency during today's trading, with July selling off from 19.60 to 19.34 and closing at 19.35. The general list closed steady at a net decline of 15 to 21 points. The market opened at a decline of 3 to 12 points in response to lower Liverpool cables, but the tone was firm and prices quickly rallied on a renewal of peace talk and reports of unreasonably low temperatures in the south. October sold up from 18.66 to 18.81 with more active months generally working about 8 to 10 points above Saturday's closing figures before the end of the first hour.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.
New Orleans, May 7.—From a net rise of 12 to 15 points around the opening of the market here today, cotton fell to a net decline of 12 to 16 points around the close. Cold weather stimulated demand in the early season, but gradually the market was affected by bearish sentiment based on reports of a smaller dry goods demand in this country, curtailed consumption of cotton in England and on the agitation for a war tax on cotton production in this country. This latter feature was claimed by the bull-builders, who thought it would probably decrease production, but the effect following its discussion was against values.

COTTON GOODS.
New York, May 7.—Government inquiries for additional quantities of hospital cloths, mosquito netting and duck continued large today and requests were made for burp in million yard lots. Markets on staples for the jobbing trade were firm and quiet. Raw silk was easy.

COTTON FUTURES.
New York, May 7.—After selling off under scattered liquidation induced by the early heaviness in hog product, cotton oil reacted with the late upturn in hard and pronounced strength in all fats and greases. Late in the afternoon, however, were inclined to be heavy July, after declining to 16.08, sold to 16.16 and closed at 16.13. Final prices were 7 points higher to 6 net lower. Sales 31,600 barrels. Ten-ton nominal. Prime crude 14.67.

CHICAGO GRAIN.
Chicago, May 7.—Expectations of a bullish government crop report tomorrow had a good deal to do with a sharp advance which took place today in wheat values. The market, after a period of high record prices, closed nervous at net gains of 1/4 to 1/2c, with May at $2.83 1/2, July at $2.25 1/2 and September at $2.14 1/2. Oats finished 1/2c off to a like advance, oats down 1/4 to 1/2c, and provisions varying from 25c decline to a rise of 25c. Authoritative announcement that the winter crop in Missouri had not only failed to exhibit a hoped-for improvement, but instead was further impaired, aroused fears that a similar condition might be shown by the government report tomorrow as to the condition of the United States winter crop as a whole. A substantial decrease of the United States visible supply total counted also as a bullish factor.

Coarse grain at first followed wheat, but sagged later on account of fine weather.

Lower quotations on hogs weakened provisions.

THE FIRST PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES owned and used The Encyclopedia Britannica, 3rd Edition, in its original bulky, unwieldy form, printed on old-fashioned THICK PAPER which necessitated a large, awkward book that had to be supported upon a table.

THE 28th PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES has the advantage of using The Encyclopedia Britannica, 11th Edition, which contains 50% more reading matter, but is printed on this INDIA PAPER and is as easy to hold and read as a magazine.

IN 1797 the stage coach traveling between Philadelphia and New York took two days to cover the ninety miles. IN 1917 the Pennsylvania Railroad Express, over practically the same route, makes the run in two hours.

IN 1797 it meant a four-hour drive by horse and carriage from Perth to the Golf Club at St. Andrew's. IN 1917 you can easily motor over the same twenty-five miles under the hour.

IN 1797 a sailing vessel often took three months to make the voyage from New York to Liverpool. IN 1917 the Mauretania can make the same trip in just over five days.

There is just as much difference between The Encyclopaedia Britannica, printed on old-fashioned thick paper, and the new Britannica, "Handy Volume" Issue, printed on genuine India paper, as there is between the stage coach of 1797 and the Philadelphia Express of 1917; between the horse and carriage, traveling eight miles an hour, and the modern motor, traveling 50 miles an hour; between the sailing vessel and the ocean steamship.

If you want the old-fashioned stage coach-horse and carriage-sailing vessel kind of an Encyclopaedia Britannica you need not be in any hurry to buy now. You can get the heavy, bulky, thick paper Britannica at any time.

But if you want the modern "Handy Volume" Encyclopaedia Britannica, printed on genuine India paper, you must order at once.

The sets of the "Handy Volume" Britannica, printed on genuine India paper, now in stock are all that we can get. These are going at the rate of more than 2000 sets a week. The end of this sale is almost here. When the last set is sold no one will be able to buy the Britannica in this, its handiest form, at any price. No more can be printed. We cannot get another set from the publishers, because they positively cannot get any more of the genuine India paper. No more India paper can be made because two necessary raw materials—flax from Belgium, Germany or Ireland and hemp from Russia—because of the war, are now absolutely unobtainable, and no more can be secured for many years.

Note:—This also means that no more of the Cambridge University issue of the Britannica and Century Dictionary can be had on genuine India paper.

We could probably sell many thousands more sets of the "Handy Volume" Issue of The Encyclopaedia Britannica if we could get them. As this sale nears the end we are receiving, daily, thousands of inquiries asking for information about the "Handy Volume" Britannica on this wonderful India paper.

When we announce the last day on which orders can possibly be filled we know that many orders will be sent in that we cannot supply sets for.

Official Proclamation by Governor Names "Buy-It-Made-In-Texas" Week

Again this nation is engaged in a righteous war, dedicated to the solemn duty of keeping faith with the inalienable rights of mankind, devoted to the high resolve that the democracies of earth shall not live in vain.

In this holy cause our country is inspired with a patriotism the like of which in intensity and unanimity, this generation has never known before.

That this patriotism will flame as high in sacrifice and privation I have no doubt. We shall undergo many tests and experience many trials, but I anticipate with assurance that we shall meet them calmly, confidently and courageously.

To few if any of us will come the glorious privilege of planting our country's flag on the crest of far-off Vimy ridge—it is enough for Texas that one gallant son of hers should thus add lustre to her name—but we can show our patriotism and loyalty in many practical and effective ways.

We can increase the efficiency and production of our farms and factories, eliminate all unnecessary waste and loss of food and fuel supplies through better handling and distribution. We can conserve our varied natural resources, concentrate our efforts in areas already developed and on enterprises already under way, and, if necessary, mobilize our unemployed labor forces for emergency assistance.

But, better still, we can keep Texas money in Texas by buying of our merchants only those goods made and manufactured in this state. In this way we shall not only be able to take care of ourselves, individually and collectively, but we shall fortify our acknowledged ability to help provide for the nation's needs.

The movement to create an interest in and demand for Texas-made products has been conducted for many months by the Buy It Made in Texas association. This organization is a patriotic body of public spirited citizens who are giving unstintingly of their time, money and energy in behalf of the public good, and in order that their work may be emphasized in an official way and receive an added impetus by having the co-operation of all our citizens, I deem it proper to call on the people of Texas to observe the week beginning May 7 and ending May 14 as "Buy It Made in Texas Week."

Given under my hand and seal of office this 26th day of April, A. D. 1917, at the state capital, Austin, Texas.

J. E. FERGUSON,
Governor of Texas.

Attest: C. J. Bartlett, Secretary of State.

THREE GENERATIONS OF WOMEN

The young women of this generation, their mothers and grandmothers have proved from actual experience that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound overcomes the suffering caused by female ills and restores them to a healthy condition. This famous medicine contains no narcotics or habit-forming drugs—but is made from medicinal roots and herbs, nature's remedy for disease. If you are suffering from any form of female ills, it will pay you to give it a trial.

TOO FAT?

HERE'S A SIMPLE, SAFE AND RELIABLE WAY TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT.

Maybe you have nearly worn out body and patience trying to secure satisfactory weight reduction by following drastic rules requiring starvation dieting or tiresome, troublesome exercises, or drugging.

Even so, you should not lose hope and imagine that you must carry through life a load of burdensome, unhealthy flesh. Here's a very simple, easy-to-follow system of treatment that is said to bring truly remarkable results for others, and it will be easy to prove it can do for you.

Go to your druggist and get a small box of oil of korein capsules. Take one capsule after each meal and one before retiring at night; also follow the other simple directions that come with the capsules.

This method should reduce your weight ten to sixty pounds (or whatever you wish) in a short time and leave your general health and figure greatly improved.

You will be amazed at the improvement in your mind as well as your body when you have begun to reduce your weight.

Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take and this treatment is surely worthy of a fair trial if you want to become thinner, healthier and younger in appearance.

MINISTERS OF GOSPEL PUT TANLAC TO TEST

Well-Known Ministers of the South Come Out Openly and Fearlessly and Tell What They Know to Be the Truth About the Medicine That Has Helped Them.

RARELY will a minister of the Gospel indorse a proprietary medicine. The preacher's high calling, the influence he commands puts a grave responsibility on his every word. He will not jeopardize his reputation by commending a thing without first assuring himself it is all right. His word carries as much weight in the home, on the street, or in the public prints as in the pulpit.

When ministers of some of the greatest communions in the land indorse Tanlac their words carry conviction. They say what they know to be the truth. They have put Tanlac to the test of personal service and have not found it wanting.

The proprietors of Tanlac have received countless testimonials from people in every walk of life, earnestly commending it. Among them are a number from prominent ministers of various churches. A few of these are printed below:

Rev. W. C. Norton is pastor of the Wesley Memorial church of Jacksonville, Fla. He says: "I suffered from chronic indigestion for years. I seldom slept well and had severe headaches. Since taking Tanlac I feel as well as ever I did—sleep splendidly and eat anything I want. Tanlac has restored my health and I feel it my duty to recommend it."

Rev. A. H. Sykes, pastor of Watkins Park Presbyterian church, Nashville, Tenn., says: "Mrs. Sykes suffered from stomach and kidney troubles and a nervous breakdown. Tanlac restored her health—she is gaining strength and flesh rapidly—her full restoration is but a question of time."

Rev. E. G. Butler, pastor of Central Baptist church, Muskogee, Okla., says: "I had attacks of acute indigestion. Results from taking Tanlac have been most satisfactory—I am glad to recommend it as the best medicine I have ever tried."

Rev. F. M. Winburn, Methodist, San Antonio, Texas, says: "I had no appetite—suffered from weakness and general debility—could not work without quickly tiring. Found Tanlac just what my system needed. I consider Tanlac a good medicine to build up run-down systems."

Rev. R. J. Taylor, pastor St. Pleasant Baptist church, Franklin, Texas, says: "Grippe left me in very bad shape—had indigestion, nervous headaches—could not sleep well. Tanlac gave me a good appetite, strengthened my nerves, I sleep well as ever—have gained five pounds."

Rev. A. L. Tull, Methodist, Atlanta, Ga., says: "My granddaughter was a nervous wreck from indigestion. Tanlac gave her an appetite—she can eat anything. She is on the road to recovery."

Rev. Jas. H. New, Baptist, Clarkston, Ga., says: "My wife had severe cramps, headaches, was very nervous, badly run down, weak and thin. Tanlac caused her troubles to disappear—she never complains now."

Rev. A. J. Vallery, former superintendent Bethany Home, Monroe, La., now of Memphis, Tenn., says: "Three years ago I had a general breakdown with indigestion—had rheumatic pains in legs. Since taking Tanlac am relieved of indigestion—rheumatic pains have stopped—feel like a new man. I give Tanlac my unqualified indorsement."

Rev. John M. Sims, Baptist, Atlanta, Ga., says: "I suffered from nervous indigestion and inactive liver—digestion badly impaired. Tanlac corrected these troubles entirely—gained ten pounds taking two bottles."

Rev. W. T. Roby, pastor West Lonsdale Methodist church, Knoxville, Tenn., testifies from personal experience as to the great benefit he derived from taking Tanlac for disordered stomach.

No better praise can be given a remedy than the unsolicited testimony of men whose lives are devoted to the betterment of their fellow men. Their integrity cannot be doubted. They serve their calling often at great personal sacrifice. Tanlac has helped them—they say so because they want to do you good.

Tanlac is sold in Waco by Morrison's Old Corner Drug Store under the personal direction of a Tanlac representative.—Adv.

DEMONSTRATE IN CANNING WORK

MRS. J. L. LANDRUM GIVES LESSON TO GIRLS OF WEST AVENUE SCHOOL.

Mrs. J. L. Landrum conducted a canning demonstration at the West avenue school yesterday. The domestic science class, which consists of about twenty-five girls, prepared the vegetables and Mrs. Landrum canned them, the girls taking notes and helping with the demonstration. Cans of beets, carrots, squash, beans, tomatoes, turnip greens and pickled turnips were the result of the demonstration. About a dozen mothers witnessed the canning work, and were enthusiastic over what they had learned.

Another One Today. A canning demonstration will be given at the Chamber of Commerce rooms today from 2:30 until 5 o'clock by the Lakeview club girls. The work will be supervised by Mrs. J. L. Landrum, but the actual work will be done by the girls. The hot water bath method will be used. All ladies of the city who are interested in the newest canning methods are cordially invited to attend the demonstration.

WACO PHYSICIANS ATTEND.

A number of Waco physicians will attend the Texas Medical association, which meets in Dallas today. A very busy program has been arranged.

TEXAS BRIEFS

Fort Worth—A physician, whose home is said to be in Fort Worth, was arrested at Bayd, near here, late Sunday on a charge of advising young men not to enlist in the United States army. The Boyd city marshal made the arrest and is said to have acted on instructions from the department of justice.

Brownsville—Telephone reports today told of heavy rains Sunday and Sunday night throughout the lower Rio Grande valley, from Rio Grande east to the gulf, coast and north to Raymondville. There was considerable property damage at Pharr. Wire communication with towns west of Donna is still down. Corn, cotton and feed crops stood in great need of moisture and all have been greatly benefited. The precipitation, according to reports received here, ranged from one to two inches.

Austin—State Purchasing Agent George Leavy today awarded contracts for furnishing dry goods and wearing apparel for the different eleemosynary institutions for the fiscal year commencing September 1, 1917. The contractors are: McKean Eilers & Co., Austin; D. G. Perkins Co., Dallas; Smith-McCord Co., Kansas City, Mo.; Kinseale Hat company, Dallas; Rose Manufacturing company, Dallas; S. G. Davis Hat company, Dallas, and Walter Nash, Dallas.

Dallas—A special from Washington says that Representative Blanton of Texas has urged President Wilson and the war department to exempt cowboys from the selective draft. The request is said to have been based on letters from James Callahan, president of the Texas Cattle Breeders' association, and others. The idea is that the cowboys can serve the country better at home than in the trenches.

Dallas—Preliminary to the opening of the first general session of the fifty-first annual convention of the State Medical association here tomorrow, meetings were held today by the Texas Railway Surgeons' association and the Roentgen Ray society. There will be a public health meeting tonight at the city hall. Fifteen hundred practicing Texas doctors are expected to be on hand by tomorrow and there also will be in attendance noted physicians and surgeons from all over the country.

Dallas—Dispatches today added to reports from various parts of the state regarding yesterday's beneficial rain. At Lockhart 2.41 inches of rain fell in ten hours, improving growing crops and furnishing plenty of stock water for the first time this year. A San Angelo special says that the rain was general in West Texas although the fall did not exceed half an inch at any place.

Hubbard—Despite chilly weather and hovering clouds, Hubbard showed its patriotism today with zeal. Crowds thronged Magnolia avenue during the loyalty parade, the sidewalks being almost impassable. The parade was a magnificent spectacle, nearly half a mile in length, and fully portrayed the patriotism of Hubbard and the surrounding territory. The mayor, the city council, the fire department, decorated autos of many designs, Confederate veterans, national guardsmen, boy scouts, Red Cross nurses and numerous other contingents made up and marched in the parade.

Thornton—A. C. Hamilton died last night after a two years' lingering illness. He leaves a widow and several children. He had resided in Thornton for thirty-five years.

El Paso, May 7.—Mexicans connected with Salazar's band raided last night the T. and O. ranch, which is owned by Americans, but lies in Mexican territory, half way between El Paso and Presidio, Texas, and carried away some cattle, according to trustworthy reports received here tonight. Word also was received that while near the border opposite Fort Hancock, Texas, last week Salazar obtained a quantity of dynamite smuggled from the American side, which he intends to use in crippling the railway service in Mexico.

Christiana, Norway, May 7.—Telegrams from Christiansand today report the nickel refining works there destroyed by fire. The damage is so extensive that production will have to be entirely discontinued, it is said. There has been considerable agitation in Norway recently in favor of prohibiting export of nickel to Germany as a protest against the sinking of Norwegian ships by submarines. The works at Christiansand had a contract to supply their whole output to Germany.

Leslie's batting. Conwell's fielding and Eddie Donalds' pitching featured a smart ball game yesterday at Katy Park, when Waco yanked Houston out of first place in the percentage column by defeating the Buffs 2 to 1.

It's a trite saying that nobody knows what a ball game will bring forth. So yesterday's proof of the saying was but another. The day was cold as 300 dollars, the grounds were damp and the bleachers were wearing overcoats, straw hats and a lack of pep. The players were reluctant to warm up and more reluctant to take the field. The crowd was in a let's-get-it-over-humor and there wasn't much use of playing anyhow. Also Zinn and Moore were scheduled to pitch and instead Eddie Donalds and Watson were trotted out. Also "Irish" Conwell was slated to play short in place of Buddy.

Not a very promising layout, was it? The first inning—at least on Houston's part—seemed to foretell just the kind of a game it was slated to be—dull and tiresome and a lot of runs. After Eddie had sat the first three batters down in succession, Miller started the Nave's half of the first by striking out on a ball that—well, Gerald's a pretty good little umpire and if he missed it he didn't go to.

Then Mike Wetzel fussed around a little and got hit in three or four places with one of Watson's fast ones. Then Roy Leslie suddenly stepped into the limelight.

Leslie hits his stride. I don't know whether it's safe to tell this or not, but I'm going to take a chance. It's something hardy said to me a week or two before the season opened. Miller had agreed to be a ball player. Donalds looked like he was rounding into shape. Blunk looked pretty fair and Teague showed signs of being able to put the apple somewhere around the plate. In other words, most of the Big Skipper's troubles showed signs of lighting up a bit. Only one thing worried him.

"If this big boy Leslie starts hitting," said Hardy, "I believe we've got a pretty fair club (big praise from the Skipper). Roy's a grand ball player and a good hitter, but he hasn't started 'em going right yet. However, I'm going to stick him up there third and it's better than an even-money bet he'll begin hitting like he can hit as soon as the season starts."

Well, in the light of what's been happening and what happened yesterday, the Skipper's confidence in his big young first baseman was more than justified. After a most successful road trip, he stepped out yesterday and lambasted that ball to the four corners—four large, healthy, mast-muzzed wallopers that had fifty-seven kinds of smoke following 'em when they sailed through or over the infield.

Pretty Lucky At That.

The first of these hits followed Mike's collision with Watson's fast one. Mike was on his way when the bat crashed and he brought up a third on the blow. Then Houston looked for a couple of minutes. Watson caught Leslie off first so he didn't even try to get back, but went on to second. Newman threw to McCarthy to get Leslie and Mike Wetzel if out for home. McCarthy's throw to Noyes was high and wide and Mike slipped under him with a nice fat run—scuttled home like a rabbit and said like Tyrus himself.

Leslie took second on the play. While James was at bat, Watson again attempted to catch Leslie off base and this time the ball got through Britton to center field. McCarthy, backing up the play, misaimed the ball and it rolled about ten feet beyond him. Pierison came running in after it, but stopped short. While Pierison and McCarthy were arguing and parrying as to who should retrieve the ball, Leslie was making tracks for third. Old Man Poll himself was coaching at third, and when he saw the indecision over the fate of the innocent ball, Poll shoved Big Les around third and told him to beat it for home. And right into that want to remark that any time you think that big boy isn't fast you're squirrel fool. He's a polly, he's a polly, he's a polly. Kaplin would say. He also slid in under a wide throw and delivered the second run.

Some Ball Game.

After this round, the game flashed out into just about the most brilliant exhibition of baseball you'll ever see in a minor league. Roy, it was EASIEHAI! That Donalds showed as much as he has shown on any out during the three years he has been doing good pitching for the Nave. He held the Buffs in the hollow of his old confidence and only in two innings did they get a man on base. One of these instances came in the sixth, when McCarthy surprised the bunch by smacking a fly drive to center for a base. Then Eddie Noyes caught one on the seam and although Miller went to the flag pole and made a grand one-handed try for a circus catch, the blow went for two bases. After Watson struck out, Hemingway's long fly to center scored McCarthy, but Noyes was held at second and the side was retired.

In the meantime, Irish Conwell was putting on a show at short that made the whole works sit up and take notice. His stop of Britton's grounder in the third was sensational in the extreme and he was all over the lot for Texas leaguers.

In the ninth Dode Criss, hitting for Watson with none out, drove a sure hit almost over second, but Conwell hooked it somehow and Leslie stretched out to meet his throw about seven feet and turned Criss back. After that, Britton drew the only walk Donalds gave up and Pierison followed with a single, but the rally was cut short when Northern tied to right.

In spite of the cold, in spite of the lack of pep to go with one of the part of players and fans, in spite of the switch in pitchers and the appearance of a utility man at short—despite all these untoward incidents, the game was a grand one. Again I'm going to say—never can tell about a ball game, especially when Nave meets Huff.

Today's game, the last of the series, will start at 4:30 o'clock.

DALLAS TAKES THE TOP

Dallas, May 7.—Dallas went into first place today by beating Galveston 5 to 0, while Waco was defeating Houston. Galveston filled the bases with none out in the first inning, but after that Conley was never in danger of being scored on. Dallas hit Karr in the pinches. Score:

CHILDREN HATE PILLS, CALOMEL AND CASTOR OIL

IF CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED, GIVE CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the "dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious California Syrup of Figs. Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless fruit laxative handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach; and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50c bottle of California Syrup of Figs, which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by California Fig Syrup Company. Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Juice of Lemons! How to Make Skin White and Beautiful

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as sallowness, freckles, an tan and is the ideal skin softener, smoothen and beautifier.

Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is wonderful to smoothen rough, red hands.

ROTARIANS HEAR TYPHOID LECTURE

DR. DOYLE L. EASTLAND GIVES INTERESTING STATISTICS ON ANTI-FEVER CRUSADE.

Speaking to Rotarians at the weekly Raleigh luncheon yesterday, Dr. Doyle L. Eastland gave interesting statistics on the stamping out of typhoid fever in the United States army. Dr. Eastland said that during the Spanish-American war there were 20,000 cases of typhoid fever in the ranks of the soldiers, but that during the recent mobilization on the Mexican border, with more troops than participated in the Spanish-American war, there were only thirty-eight cases of typhoid and two deaths. This was attributable, said Dr. Eastland, to compulsory vaccination and sanitation, and European countries have followed the lead of the United States in stamping out the dread disease.

The toastmaster was Dr. Carl Lovelace, and several new members were introduced, among them being President A. R. Roberts of the Amicable Life Insurance company, Manager R. E. Fellow of the Raleigh hotel, and E. S. Fentress, business manager of the Waco Morning News.

The prize, $5 worth of vulcanizing, given by C. B. Collins of the Quick Tire Service company, incorporated, was won by J. P. Everett.
